We have SMURFBERRY CUPCAKE which is a blueberry and strawberry cupcake.

I, personally, like the Smurfberry cupcake. It's the first flavor that got me down to the shop about like 7 months ago and I haven't smelled or tasted anything like it since I've vaped.

POTION #9 which is a sweet strawberry custard akin to Suicide bunny's Mother's Milk.

Me personally, I like Potion #9. It's the only flavor that I've been vaping for almost four months consistently without stopping. I just bought a new bottle last week.

LA CREME which is a sweet buttery vanilla custard flavor.

La creme is probably my favorite.

PEBBLEZ is our version of a fruity pebble cereal with a dash of milk.

Pebblez Pebblez Pebblez Pebblez Pebblez Pebblez, Pebblez.

Followed by ALIEN THROAT PUNCH which is a strawberry kiwi with a hint of citrus.

It's so good. (Yes)

We also have MAUI WOWIE which is a guava, pomegranate with a hint of coconut. It's a very nice mellow fruit flavor compared to Alien Throat Punch.

We also have WARM APPLE PIE, which is self explanatory, a nice warm apple pie with good notes of pie crust, we likened it to Five Pawns', I believe it's, GAMBIT.

Hmmmm Warm Apple Pie, amazing.

And last but in our list is BAJA SPLASH which is our rendition of Mountain dew baja blast.
